Hickey Urges Retention Of Game Refuge

Supervisor Talks To San Francisco Board

Urging that the Spring Valley property in this county be continued as a game refuge after it is taken over by the city of San Francisco, as it has been under the Spring Valley Water Company, Supervisor Thomas L. Hickey, supervisor of the first township in this county, addressed the board of supervisors of San Francisco at the meeting of that body Monday.

Hickey's action followed the passing of a resolution by the supervisors of San Mateo county urging this action upon the San Francisco government. The action of the supervisors in advocacy of the continuation of the game refuge has met with universal approval in the county. The supervisors have been commended for their stand by the San Mateo-Burlingame Kiwanis club and other civic and social organizations.

The Spring Valley Water Company has since the earliest days of the county kept their vast holdings as a refuge for all kinds of wild life. The underbrush furnishes cover for countless deer; the wooded lands serve as safe nesting places for quail and other birds, while ducks feed in safety along the sedgy shores of the lakes. It is to maintain these conditions that the supervisors and the people of this county are striving. It has been feared that when the land is turned over to the municipal government that the protection will be withdrawn and the wild life exterminated, as has been done in other places.

Supervisor Hickey is greatly encouraged by his visit to the San Francisco supervisors, and was assured the assistance of Mayor Rolph in the cause so important to this county.

Redwood Youth Killed in L. A.

Charles Jackson of Redwood City, brother of Mrs. A. G. Schmidt of 399 Spruce street, was fatally injured and Vernon Newson, son of Mrs. Schmidt, was seriously hurt, in an automobile accident in Los Angeles Wednesday. Jackson incurred a fractured skull and hip and died late Wednesday night in a hospital, according to a telegram received yesterday morning by Mr. Schmidt. Mrs. Schmidt had already left the evening before upon receipt of the news of the accident. Newson suffered concussion of the brain, but will probably recover.

Details of the accident are lacking, further than that the automobile in which the two Redwood City youths, and Gilbert Parks of Palo Alto, owner of the car, and two Huntington Park men were riding, crashed into a large truck.

Woman Injured In Highway Accident

Local Woman Runs Into Side of Car At Five Points

Mrs. Celia Hamilton, colored, of 12 Spruce street, received what may prove to be fatal injuries Wednesday evening when struck by a car on the highway near Five Points. The accident occurred at 9:15 Wednesday evening as Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. E. Johnson, also colored, of the same address, were crossing the highway on foot. According to all witnesses to the accident, Mrs. Hamilton became frightened when a northbound car passed in front of the women. She turned and began to run, and in doing so ran directly into the side of a machine traveling in the opposite direction.

The second machine was driven by Malcolm Ross, 2209 15th street, San Francisco. In it were the Misses Elsie and Grace Deboi of 589 Congo street, San Francisco, and Fernando Ansaldi of 2628 Clement street, the same city.

Mrs. Hamilton, struck by the side of the Ross machine, was thrown violently to the pavement. She was taken to the Community hospital by Emmett Maine of this city. There it was found that she had suffered severe cranial injuries.

The accident was investigated by Redwood City police, who were told by Mrs. Johnson that her companion, Mrs. Johnson, started to run. Mrs. Johnson saw the approaching car and tried to stop Mrs. Hamilton, but the latter ran into the side of the machine. Ross and the passengers in his car verified this testimony.

LOCAL NEWSPAPERS SECURE NEW LOCATION FOR MODERN BUILDING

Plant To Be Erected On Washington Street To Accommodate Growing Needs Of Redwood City's Journals

The Standard Printing Company and the Times-Gazette, which organizations were consolidated on November 1 are to have a new and modern home on Washington street. Negotiations were completed yesterday whereby J. V. Swift purchased from Mrs. Annabelle Grandi a portion of the valuable frontage owned by her at the corner of Washington and Webster streets. The property secured adjoins the land on which the old St. Peter's Episcopal church is located and is partly occupied by the house formerly used as the church parsonage. The deal was consummated through Julius W. Smith, local realtor, and the price paid for the valuable holding was approximately $200,000.

Work on the new building, which will be reinforced concrete with a beautiful front and large well-lighted press and work rooms and modern in every respect, will start within the next week or ten days, just as soon as the contract is let. The building will be leased to Arthur V. Swift, J. D. Hedge, John Isaac and Stanley L. Netherton, who are conducting the business of the Standard and the Times-Gazette under the consolidation arrangement. Swift and Hedge are the owners of the Standard Printing Co. and Isaac and Netherton have been operating the Times-Gazette for a number of years under a lease from the owner, D. E. O'Keefe.

New machinery, including a large perfecting press, modern linotype machines and other equipment essential to producing a first class and live up-to-date semi-weekly newspaper that will meet the needs and requirements of a progressive community like Redwood City and one that will keep pace with its expected rapid growth within the next few years will be installed in the new building immediately upon its completion.

The very latest in printing equipment will also be installed in the commercial printing department, which will give to Redwood City one of the most modern printing plants on the peninsula.

Exchangites Hear Talk on Travels

An interesting talk on travel in the south seas was given before the members of the Redwood City Exchange Club by Emmett Kirby, artist, sculptor and lecturer, Tuesday evening. The speaker graphically pictured the sights which greet one in the southern Pacific. The chairman of the meeting was A. J. Stebbins.

An interesting feature was added to the meeting by the violin numbers by Harry and Howard Bourquin. Merlin Stokes, son of Colen Stokes of the Exchange club, and captain of the Sequoia High School's first water polo team, was introduced by J. M. Eva, swimming coach of the high school.

Kiwanians Given Talk on Football

Members of the Redwood City Kiwanis Club were given an interesting talk on college football Wednesday by C. E. "Tiny" Tornhill, assistant coach at Stanford. Tornhill reviewed the history of the game from its beginning among the ancient Greeks, tracing it to England, where it was a popular sport during the 13th century. The football of that time, he said, was somewhat similar to the Rugby football of today.

American football, Tornhill stated, was the outgrowth of a variation of the old Rugby game which originated in the school of Eton in England. The early history of the game in this country was marked by great irregularities. There was no regulation or rules. Anywhere from 11 to 22 men constituted a team. There was no regulation as to the size or shape of a field. The present system of playing, Tornhill stated, was started with the old "flying wedge," which because of its many casualties was revised to the present type of play.

Tornhill also explained the various reforms in playing which have been developed by "Pop" Warner, Stanford's coach. The chairman of the meeting was Gordon Seely.

It is claimed that the tri-motor Fokker planes used by Western Air Express are so designed that they cannot spin, accidentally or otherwise.

Coroner Denies Charge Made By County Jurors

Office Funds Kept As Provided By Law

County Coroner and Public Administrator J. C. McGovern yesterday issued a statement in which he denied charges made against his office by the grand jury in its report filed this week. The statement follows:

The report of the auditor for the Grand Jury of San Mateo County, as far as it concerns my office as Public Administrator, is perhaps misleading.

I never told the expert that I kept no records. In fact, I have a detailed record of each estate handled by me. I can account to any one by public record for every dollar's worth of property coming into my possession as Public Administrator.

Every six months I cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation printed in San Mateo County a full report showing the condition of each estate in my hands and upon closing each estate I file with the County Clerk a statement showing all property received and disbursed by me, which statement is sworn to before a Notary Public, and which statement is heard before the Superior Court and examined by the Judge of said court before the estate is closed. Each account must balance absolutely with the accounts of the County Treasurer and County Auditor.

I do allow money to remain in savings accounts at interest until the estate is ready for distribution or until the money is actually needed for current expenses of the estate.

In justification of this procedure I am guided by the Bank Act of the State of California, Section 684, of which reads as follows: "Deposits of deceased persons may remain in savings banks, where a decedent, at the time of his or her death, left moneys on deposit with a savings bank, it shall be lawful for any public administrator, who shall become the administrator of the estate, to allow such deposit to remain in said savings bank, and also, it shall be lawful for him to deposit therein to the account of said decedent any and all moneys of said estate not required for the current expenses of administration. Such deposit, whether made by the decedent or a public administrator, shall relieve the public administrator from depositing the same with the county treasurer."

This particular section has been a part of the State Bank Act since 1911 and the legality of this section has never been denied by any court. I feel that it is my duty as administrator, not only to avoid dissipating estates but to attempt to create a revenue for the benefit of the heirs while the estates are in my hands.

Native Daughters Hold Installation

With many visitors present from adjoining parishes and from all parts of the state, the installation of the new officers of Bonita Parlor No. 10, Native Daughters of the Golden West, took place last Thursday night in the Odd Fellows Hall. The installing officer was Mrs. Grace Lovelidge of Menlo Park. Featuring the gathering was the attendance of Grand President, Esther E. Sullivan, who was accompanied by the Grand Secretary, Sallie Arthurs, and several other grand officers.

An added feature of the evening was the fact that two sisters, for the first time in the history of the parlor, were installed as officers on the same night. The two honored were Ruth Kirsie, who became past president, and Claire Kirsie Roberts, who took her seat as president of the parlor.

During the evening President Roberts presented the Grand President and also the District Deputy Grand President with beautiful gifts. Miss Lillie Deluchi was given her past president's pin.

Following the installation ceremony, the members and their guests close to 200 in all, sat down to an elaborate banquet, at tables that were beautifully decorated. The banquet committee consisted of Mrs. Mamie Glennan, chairman, Mrs. Geraldine Brown, Mrs. Sophie O'ferman and Mrs. Elizabeth Gould. The decorating committee was composed of Mrs. Ida Thompson, chairman, Mrs. Augusta Sharkey, Mrs. Josephine Drathman and Mrs. Elizabeth Gherlin.

The following officers were installed: Past president, Ruth Kirsie; president, Claire Kirsie Roberts; first vice-president, Anna Olson; second vice-president, Alice Hayes; third vice-president, Margaret Rice; marshal, Grace Brown; recording secretary, Dora Wilson; financial secretary, Mary Junker treasurer, Mary McAuliffe; trustees, Lillie Deluchi, August Sharkey and Theresa Deluchi; inside sentinel, Dorothy Cerulli; outside sentinel, Ida Thompson; musician, Margaret Righetti.

Term Fixed For Bridge Killing

The state prison board has fixed the term of Louis Reyes, sentenced from this county eighteen months ago for the murder of George Bassett, a carpenter on the San Mateo-Hayward bridge, at ten years. The killing took place during an argument while both men were employed in the construction of the bridge. Reyes struck Bassett on the head with a heavy timber and knocked him into the bay. He entered a plea of guilty to manslaughter and was sentenced by Judge Buck. The fight took place near the middle of the bridge and engineers had to be summoned at the preliminary hearing to determine whether the crime was committed in this county or in Alameda.

Engineers Plan Development Of South Bay Land

Wednesday Meeting Harbor Development Was Discussed

To discuss the possibilities and needs for the development of the south portion of San Francisco Bay from the San Francisco County line to Alviso, Lt. Col. Thos. N. Robbins, War Department Chief Engineer for the Pacific Coast; Captain H. W. Rhodes, superintendent of light-houses; and Thos. J. Maher, inspector of coast and geodetic survey, met with the San Francisco chamber of commerce industrial committee Wednesday noon in the Commercial Club.

Reports on the present markings of the south bay channel and the need for improved designations by buoys and lights were considered by the government officials and committee members. The committee likewise discussed the securing of up-to-date charting of soundings in order that navigators may have easy access of the potential industrial lands of the Peninsula.

"Thousands of acres of potential industrial lands are available on the San Francisco peninsula," stated Industrial Chairman L. O. Head. "To make these lands attractive to the many factories which we expect will locate on these sites during the coming year, one of the greatest needs is the provision of deep water shipping facilities. To this end our committee has included the investigation of necessary south bay deep water improvements for industrial purposes in its program of industrial activities. A special committee will consider the matters discussed at Wednesday's meeting, make further investigations and present their recommendations for further consideration of our industrial committee at an early date."

Fred Danz, Sr., Passes Suddenly

Frederick A. Danz, former well-known business man of Redwood City, passed away suddenly at his home in Dumbarton Oaks yesterday noon. Death, it is believed, was caused by a heart attack. An inquest will be held later in the week by Dr. J. C. McGovern, coroner. The remains are at the parlors of Layne & Tinsley, 334 Washington street, awaiting funeral arrangements.

Danz was for many years engaged in the meat business here and at one time conducted the Portola Market on Broadway, now the Post Office Market. He has been retired for the past year.

He is survived by a wife, Mrs. Josephine Danz, three sons, Frederick, former football star at the Sequoia Union High School; Charles and Kenneth Danz; and two daughters, Mildred and Juanita. Another daughter, Donalda Cecelia, aged 14, passed away last April. Two brothers, John and Henry of San Francisco, and a sister, Mrs. Herman Schmitz of Mayfield, also survive.

Mt. View-New community hall will be dedicated February 6th.

Advertising For Bay District Is Committee Plan

Eastern Offices Will Be Used To Aid Growth Here

One of the biggest advertising moves ever inaugurated by a district was outlined by the committee of "49", representing the San Francisco bay area, in a report issued by the committee. The report sums up four important steps to be taken to advertise this section of the state throughout the world.

Nine bay counties represented by the committee are planning to raise a pool of $52,000 immediately to finance:

Permanent offices in New York and Chicago. Establishment of a statistical and research clearing house to gather information for use here and in the east.

Co-ordination of national community advertising. A master survey of the industrial and marketing assets and opportunities of the area.

The survey-unprecedented in the history of industrial campaigning—has already been outlined in preliminary form.

It will present for the first time the entire bay district as a homogeneous economic and social unit, amplifying and unifying similar efforts conducted by individual communities.

"The program upon which we are now entering is not a campaign or a sporadic effort," says a joint statement issued by Chairman E. B. Field and Almer M. Newhall, presidents, respectively of the Oakland and San Francisco Chambers of Commerce.

"To repay 'thousandfold'—Rather, it is a policy of permanent and accumulating effort which will cost money, but will repay us a thousandfold."

Raising of the money has been placed with a committee of five, under leadership of L. O. Head. Quotas will be assigned to each county, and separate organizations formed to see that they are met.

Future annual financing will probably be accomplished out of the tax funds, dues, the statement says.

Two Eastern Offices The two eastern offices will be staffed by experts capable of presenting to eastern businessmen, financiers, manufacturers and industrial leaders the economic advantages of a trade area embracing 12,000,000 potential customers.

As to advertising, the committee will "devise plans to co-ordinate national advertising of bay area advantages now being carried on by organizations in the various counties so as to unify them in purpose and synchronize them with the sales efforts of our eastern offices and our clearing house here."

Distinguished Visitor Greeted At Mount Carmel School

On Tuesday last, the delegate, and her companion, from the Mother House of the Sisters of Notre Dame in Namur, Belgium, were greeted by the children of Mt. Carmel school, Redwood City, with a program. The outstanding feature of the program was the welcome given by the scholars of Notre Dame in California to Belgium. The part of California was taken by Helen Donnelly, accompanied by Sara Besozzi; and that of Belgium, by Linda Malveau, accompanied by Georgette Delvaux. The address of welcome was given by Constance Cahill. The visitors expressed their appreciation of the attainments of the children.

L. L. Leatherwood has been appointed manager for the Peninsula unit of the Clarence Saunders Stores. Mr. Leatherwood, who formerly was superintendent of the Oakland unit, succeeds in this territory, Mr. John Baker. Clarence Saunders has thirty-seven stores now in operation in the Bay District.

Acidity

The common cause of digestive difficulties is excess acid. Soda cannot alter this condition, and it burns the stomach. Something that will neutralize the acidity is the sensible thing to take. That is why physicians tell the public to use Phillips Milk of Magnesia.

One spoonful of this delightful preparation can neutralize many times its volume in acid. It acts instantly; relief is quick, and very apparent. All gas is dispelled; all sourness is soon gone; the whole system is sweetened. Do try this perfect anti-acid, and remember it is just as good for children, too, and pleasant for them to take. Any drug store has the genuine, prescription product.

Four Year Hunt Ends In Arrest

Cambridge, Mass.—After more than four years of searching the law has reached out and fallen heavily on the shoulder of Jerry Cappello, twenty-four, of East Boston, charged with the murder of Edward C. Ross, bank messenger, at the Ward Baking company plant here in 1925.

Cappello is charged with first degree murder, for the same crime for which Jerry Gedzum, "Jerry the Pole," was electrocuted on February 28, 1928. A third man arrested in the case, Louis Lacedra, was released because of insufficient evidence.

Cappello's arrest was due to the alertness of Patrolmen Hannebury and Louisinski, who took him into custody in front of his home.

For four years the Cambridge police have been searching for Cappello, making several trips to Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont on the case during the last four years.

It was known in police circles that Cappello was running liquor from Canada, a fact which he admitted when arrested, and several traps were set in tiny towns near the Canadian border.

SUCH IS LIFE — Who Can Deny It?

The Embarrassment of Riches

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
Dean of Men, University of Illinois.

The impression which one gets of Hawaii, almost before the boat has docked at Honolulu, is that it is a garden of flowers. Friends come running up with wreaths of carnations and gardenias, and fragrant ginger and roses and throw them around one's neck even before one has landed. One is an uninitiated delight. There is an embarrassment in a richness of flowers as I suppose there is in every sort of riches.

A woman in San Francisco has just applied for a divorce. She was married to a man who after their marriage had become suddenly rich through the discovery of oil on some of his property. The luxury and which the woman suddenly found herself was an embarrassment to her. She longed for the old simple life.

"Poverty grants to those she loves," she wrote to her husband, "the only urge of life—the boon of desire." With nothing to wish for, nothing to work for, with every want satisfied life would no doubt pall upon us. We can have too many flowers, too much sunshine. For even flowers and sun shine might in time become a real embarrassment of riches.

"I sometimes long to be a poor man's wife," a wealthy woman once said to me. "There would be less responsibility for me in such a position, more freedom, more joy to which I could look forward."

Studying Effects of Radium Rays

Washington, D. C.—Studies to determine the effects upon workers of exposure to radium rays have been extended to the Midwest by the United States public health service.

More than 200 women clock factory employees in the vicinity of New York already have been examined by scientific investigators of the service. Using especially developed apparatus the investigators have subjected each worker to a searching examination that is expected after X-ray plates have been developed to disclose the slightest trace of the radium effects. It will require several months, Dr. L. R. Thompson, who is directing the inquiry for the health service, said to complete study of the plates obtained by the field workers and prepare the results of their study for publication.

The study is the most exhaustive ever undertaken to determine how radium rays affect workers who come into intimate contact with them. Five New Jersey women and a number of workers elsewhere have been stricken after exposure to radium rays in clock factories and several deaths have resulted.

Doctor Thompson explained the health service has decided to expand its inquiry to Illinois in order to obtain data that will be as complete as possible. Results of the survey are expected to be of invaluable aid to science in the future.

Women workers in clock factories whom the investigation discloses to be infected with the penetrating radium rays will be removed to other employment.

Results of the study are expected also to clarify the dispute between scientists over whether radium rays are harmful.

Timber Wolf Becomes Pal of Michigan Man

Traverse City, Mich.—Mark Crow, Traverse City conservation officer, has successfully tamed a young timber wolf.

The wolf, taken by Crow while a pup and nursed from a bottle, answers his master's call like a dog, and follows him about the house. It eats meat from a platter, and is glad to accept the warmth and comfort of a pillow. Also, it is gentle in temperament.

Man has never been fortunate in his experiment with the wolf and Crow is wondering whether his pet will prove the exception to the rule, or revert to type when it becomes older.

Spare Parts for Dogs

London.—The days when faithful dog friends, overtaken by infirmity had to be taken to execution, have passed, according to the organizers of the National Dog show here. They state that dogs can now be fitted with artificial limbs, glass eyes and false teeth.

New Poor

The recent stock market crash has put on the lists of charity organizations persons who never before had dreamed that they might be objects of charity. But a wrong slant on the situation might be got from a cartoon I saw recently, depicting a man accepting alms from a woman "Poor fellow," said the benefactress. "Stock market, I suppose?" "No," replied the object of charity. "I was always a bum." The persons who are now asking for help are not investors and former big men of Wall Street, but such folk as artists who have lost their commissions, servants who have been let out, tutors and music teachers and the like. The family that has suffered in Wall Street goes on an economy program, and the retrenchment affects the firelings in that they are discharged.

Rewards

Recently I read that a Chicago gun man has been linked with so many murders that rewards for his capture total $100,000. There are probably hundreds of detectives who make a profession of going after reward cases who are now on his trail. But some one else may capture him—a traffic policeman might arrest him for speeding, for example. And if this happens and the traffic policeman doesn't know about the rewards, he is out of

Chinese Counterfeiters Caught Making U. S. Coins

Peiping.—The Chinese police have discovered a gang of Chinese counterfeiters here who were engaged in manufacturing American gold coins. Four of the leaders have been arrested, and their apparatus confiscated. The police state that the counterfeit coins were not good enough to deceive Americans, but that a number of them had been passed successfully upon Chinese banks and exchange shops.

TURKISH SAVAGERY

Albert Nye Roughton, fifty-four, an American citizen, who is now in Washington, exhibiting the scars inflicted on his face and body during the two years he spent in a Turkish prison. Roughton, who seeks a pension on which he may live, was a Spanish-American war veteran who was engaged in 1914-15 in running the blockade into Mesopotamia aboard a British ship. He was captured, branded as a spy and sent to prison in the Blue mountains. There he was branded with the German double-headed eagle superimposed on the Turkish "Spider of Death," which served as a means of identification in case of escape. Escaping from prison with a young girl, Ada Allen Mace, another prisoner, Roughton later joined the expedition of Lord Carnarvon which unearthed the tomb of King Tut-Akh Amen.

luck. He might hear about the prize afterward, but in most states he could not bring suit to get the money. Not long ago in New York a taxicab chauffeur found what he thought was a string of imitation pearls. As a matter of routine he turned the pearls over to his employers, and they found the owner. The string was worth $50,000, and a reward of $5,000 had been posted. Since the chauffeur made no claim at the time he turned them in, he had no legal right to the $5,000. But the overjoyed owner gave it to him anyway.

Wisecrack

There is, as is usual each season, one of those half-whimsical, half-dramatic A. A. Milne plays at the tiny Charles Hopkins theater. This time it is about two very nice people, one of whom commits bigamy. All Milne people are very nice, from Winnie the Pooh on up, and the bigamy in this case is quite the right thing to do. But I am digressing. What I wanted to tell about is a line that amused me. Edith Barrett, the wife, is trying to get the attention of Henry Hull, the husband, who is reading a book. Finally she asks:

"Is that one of those books that, once you have picked it up, you cannot put it down?"

"No," replied Hull, "it is one of those books you cannot pick up, once you have put it down."

WHY not make your appeal for patronage through the columns of this newspaper? With every issue it carries its message into the homes of all the best people of this community. Don't blame the people for flocking to the store of your competitor. Tell them what you have to sell and if your prices are right you can get the business.

"Local Investment—Try First at Home"

"Try First at Home" has become a national slogan. It was originated to counteract the very human tendency that "the grass across the way is greener"; it has become a national slogan because it has proved itself!

There is only one place in the world where you can spend your dollars AND SEE THEM WORK FOR YOU. Where you can have them return to you with big dividends. That is in your community. They are emblems of your civic loyalty and interest. They work for you by giving you a greater and more prosperous community—good city government, with law and order—improved schools and churches—better streets—and increased service and business facilities.

NOWHERE ELSE is the purchasing power of your dollar greater than in your own town!

NOWHERE ELSE can the comforts, conveniences and necessities of life be secured at a lower cost!

NOWHERE ELSE will your money buy for you the careful, personal service characterized by individual interest that is rendered you by your community!

What sense is there in sending these dollars out of town for the things you need, when your local business and professional men can supply these needs—yes, supply them with better quality and at a lower cost? They do not say "Keep your dollars here"—they merely say

TRY FIRST AT HOME

The glamour of "out-of-town" shopping fades for the man or woman who realizes that the dollar spent "out of town" never returns to benefit either them or the community in which they live.

The "out-of-town" dollar goes into the structure of some other community's prosperity, depriving OUR community of just that much business energy and building force, and in no way making it possible for OUR OWN COMMUNITY INTERESTS TO INCREASE THE VALUE OF OUR SERVICE TO YOU!

TRY FIRST AT HOME—the "out-of-town" dollar is gone forever; the "home-spent" dollar returns to you in

All Eyes on London

At no time since President Wilson went to Paris to help frame the peace treaties has there been as much interest in an international conference, particularly at the Capitol in Washington, as is being shown in the one session in London.

The difference in time between London and Washington brought the speech of King George to America's shores at 6 o'clock in the morning. The London radio program was scheduled to begin at 5:30 o'clock a. m. President Hoover and a small party of his intimates were up, and dressed in rough clothes and sweaters, and they sat before the radio and listened to the miracle of a King of Great Britain appealing to the nations of the world to reduce the burden of armaments and take positive steps to prevent future wars and to preserve future peace. It was a momentous event for everybody, and when the speech was over the listeners-in at the White House adjourned to the grounds outside and played their usual morning game of medicine ball with greater zest and earnestness than they had evidenced for many a day.

If the London Naval Disarmament Conference does what is expected of it the Congress of the United States will back its program to the limit. That much is certain as there is not the slightest indication that party politics and party prejudices will be able to defeat attempts "to make the world safe for democracy," as was the case when the United States Senate refused to ratify the treaty of Versailles.

Visualizing the World

Doctor Anita Maris Boggs is doing as much as any person in the National Capital to furnish thinking people with clear ideas about what is happening in different parts of the world. Miss Boggs is visualizing the world through programs which she puts on in the big hotels of the Capital every Sunday night. With the aid of the Embassies and Legations she has glorified the art of displaying wonderful still pictures and moving pictures by bringing lecturers from every part of the world to tell about their strange and interesting lands.

The British Ambassador, the Right Honorable Sir Esme Howard, accompanied by Lady Isabelle Howard, occupied the seats of honored guests the first evening. The program was about India. "Germany," "Jugo Slavia," and "United States Navy Night" have furnished the subjects and programs for other evenings.

A particular Sunday evening found the German Ambassador as the guest of honor, with Germany as the interesting subject.

Miss Boggs takes her audiences all around the world in these series of Sunday night programs each winter. She is performing a great work in behalf of educating statesmen and others in the Nation's Capital, and the interest she arouses in the problems of how the other part of the world lives cannot fail to furnish encouragement and hope for those who are trying to make our good old universe a better place for everybody. Miss Boggs succeeds because "commonsense is woman's ally."

Exchange - Post Office, Lead in Volley Ball

By winning their respective games last Thursday the teams representing the Exchange Club and the Post Office went into a tie for first place in the Business Men's Volleyball League with three wins and no defeats.

As was expected, the game between the Kiwanis and Post Office proved to be the feature struggle of the evening. Only a couple of points separated the two clubs during most of the contest and every player gave every thing he had in trying to help his team win. The P. O. played a three pass game, while the Kiwanis shot fast balls from their back row along with the three pass. The final score was Post Office 38 and Kiwanis, 30.

The Exchange came through with a 55 to 31 win against the Professors who would have probably made a closer contest had they had all their players on hand. The 70-means trounced the All Stars 53 to 33, while the Titties beat the Engineers in the last few minutes of play, 45 to 35. The Lions won by default from the Bank of Italy, but lost a special game against the Palo Alto Crescents, 41 to 31.

The standing date:
Team W L Pct.
Post Office 3 0 1.000
Exchange 3 0 1.000
Kiwanis 2 1 .667
Professors 2 1 .667
Lions 2 1 .667
Yomecans 1 2 .333
All Stars 1 2 .333

Engineers 0 3 .000
Bank of Italy 0 3 .000

Last night five other games were played. These were between the Yomecans and Titties, Exchange and Lions, Kiwanis and All Stars, Post Office and Bank of Italy, Professors and Engineers. These games were played too late to record the winners or the scores at this time.

Thomas Stott, who has been confined to Mills Memorial Hospital for some weeks past, returned home on Wednesday much improved in health. This will be good news to his many friends on the peninsula.

The City's Aerial Blanket

In a quest to discover what makes up the aerial "blanket" that shuts out so much sunshine from the inhabitants of big cities, it has been found in one instance that the blanket is composed of 65 per cent carbon dust, and 15 per cent mineral particles and ash, while the remainder includes a variety of materials. Factories, automobiles and highways all help to contribute. The people of cities breathe these substances into their lungs, while a large part of the blanket eventually rests on skyscrapers and other structures and mar their beauty. Automobiles also suffer the dulling of the bright finishes of the cars by the forming of "traffic film." Fortunately, in the case of the motor car, the traffic film may be removed and the ducoed surfaces made as bright, shiny and alluring as when the finish was applied in the factory. But to scour a sixty-story building is something else, while getting the foreign matter out of human lungs is quite another matter. Still, some scientists claim that breathing about three teaspoonfuls of soot and other stuff a year is not as bad as it sounds.

Mud and the Farmer

A recent editorial in the "Bureau Farmer" says that the barrier of mud which five months out of the year separates five million farm families from the markets where they sell their produce, and likewise buy their supplies, is of supreme importance in the agricultural economic situation.

According to this authority, there are almost two and one-half million miles of unimproved dirt roads in the United States, and nearly five million farmers live on them. Farmers in this country pay seven per cent of the highway tax, yet less than three per cent of them are situated on year-round highways.

Here is room for some "farm relief" activity which will actually relieve. The greatest present need, in the matter of highways, is improved farm-to-market roads. These can be constructed, with a durable waterproof surface, at a low cost and without large maintenance expense.

The five million farmers now living with a barrier of mud between them and their markets, are deserving of immediate consideration. Good roads will probably do more than anything else to advance agricultural progress and prosperity.

Like the Birds

Automobile traffic through Washington headed for the sunny south and Florida has become very heavy. Humanity is much like migratory birds in matters of flight.

Last year some of the tourists returning from Florida expressed the opinion that signs on the doors in hotels down there "have you left anything?" should be changed to read, "have you anything left?"

Birds and Dumb Animals

In the winter season the public requires constant reminders to reduce suffering among our winged friends and all domestic animals. Snow and ice on the ground and on lakes and running streams cuts off the supply of natural food and water from the winged and four-footed denizens of the great world and causes incalculable suffering.

It is a kind and generous act to make food and water available to creatures deprived of it by winter weather. Editors have prevented much suffering by bringing this matter to public attention and every family will derive pleasure and satisfaction by aiding in the humane cause.

They who love are but one step from heaven.—Lowell.

Drive For Funds For Boy Scouts To Open Feb. 10

Walter Kellogg To Be Chairman Here; Asks $1200

Redwood City's chairman in the county wide annual budget campaign of the Boy Scouts, which opens February 10th, will be Walter Kellogg, it was decided last night at a meeting of the campaign committee.

George N. Keyston, president of the San Francisco Stock Exchange and resident of San Mateo, is to be the general chairman of the campaign, which will ask subscription of $1000 with which to meet expenses of the Boy Scout organization through out the county for the coming year. Every cent of the money will be spent in San Mateo County, leaders have announced. The Redwood City quota is $1200.

Funds will pay for services of a field executive, training of Scoutmasters, band master, office help and field expenses, training of additional Scoutmasters, equipment of new troops, promotion and additional equipment of Seascout work, rallies, jamborees. The quota for Redwood City, also includes sufficient amount to take care of the needs of the local troop 143, Scoutmaster John Rhoda and Troop 105, Scoutmaster F. Thompson. By including in the Redwood City budget an allowance for the needs of the local troops, the community will avoid any further solicitation from the parents or merchants.

Among the leading items will be maintenance and further equipment for the Boy Scout camp at the Memorial Grove, near Pescadero, which was crowded to capacity last summer. "Additional equipment is needed for the coming summer camp, so that care can be taken of the younger boys—Club Scouts, who are going to have a camp period of their own this year," says George H. Arthur, chairman of the Camp Committee.

The camp has received national recognition for its fine location, complete sanitation, high standard equipment and most efficient program and supervision. More than 500 boys and their leaders enjoyed the camp last year, and 900 Scouts and 400 Junior Scouts took part in other activities of the Scout program throughout the year.

"In appealing to all those who believe in sound character training for San Mateo County boys, the committee will ask investments in 'Boyhood Preferred,' and will seek the assistance of all community leaders," said Chairman Kellogg of the Redwood City division.

"I consider it an honor to champion the cause for there is certainly a vast good being accomplished by the Boy Scout movement, not only in Redwood City and in San Mateo county, but through the entire country. In this regard it might be well to bring to attention the fact that President Herbert Hoover is the honorary president of the Boy Scouts of America."

General Campaign Committee—George N. Keyston, chairman; Bruce Gibson, San Mateo; Robert G. Hooker, Jr., Hillsborough; Henry Maier, Burlingame; Walter Kellogg, Redwood City; Marshall P. Madison, Atherton and Menlo Park; Dr. F. H. Smith, San Bruno; Guy R. Kinsley, Burlingame; Charles J. Eldridge, Burlingame; Dr. J. C. McGovern, South San Francisco.

One Hundred Badges To Be Presented At Boy Scout Meeting

One hundred merit badges covering various subjects in Scouting will be awarded to fifty Scouts representing many troops in the county at special exercises to be held today at the City Hall, San Mateo. The Court of Honor has made an enviable record in the past year, according to the statement filed with the executive board by the secretary of the Court.

During the year 1929 over one thousand merit badges were awarded and 13 Scouts qualified as Eagle Scouts, the highest rank in Scouting.

Greater strides will be made during the coming year in merit badge work. It is planned to hold troop Court's of Honor in every part of the county, in addition to the sessions of the regular monthly Court of Honor held in San Mateo. Mr. J. C. Whitman is the chairman of the Court of Honor.

There will also be an observance of Founders' Day. The monthly whist party sponsored by the P. T. A. will take place at the school house Friday, Feb. 14, at 8 P. M. Admission is 25 cents. Refreshments extra.

Burlingame Post American Legion To Dedicate Home

Legionnaire members of Burlingame Post 163 were hard at work again all day Sunday, January 26th, on the addition to the Club House at Bayswater and Lorton avenues, and under the personal supervision of Capt. E. L. Norberg, legionnaire architect and designer, and Tom Farris, legionnaire builder, the club house is rapidly nearing completion in typically war time fashion. Legionnaires have promised to devote every Sunday until February 22nd, helping Tom Farris and his corps of carpenters, who are also donating their time, so that everything will be in readiness for the dedication exercises on that date. In lieu of the ceremony known as "laying the cornerstone," since the building itself is not a new one, there will be a "hearth box" containing similar data, built into the fireplace, and this ceremony will take place at the dedication exercises.

Several of the contestants in the Queen Contest visited the club house and joined the workers in their noon luncheon. They were Gladys K. Durham, Mrs. E. K. Worden and Elizabeth Canadas.

An added feature of the program on Washington's Birthday will be the initiation ceremony of the local "Forty and Eight," which will be held immediately following the dedication exercises. It is expected that there will be over 200 visitors from Volturne throughout northern California for this event alone.

R. R. Commission Sanctions Deal On Water Lands

The Spring Valley Water Company was this week given formal authority to transfer properties in San Mateo county and elsewhere to the city of San Francisco on or before April, by order of the State Railroad Commission. Under the terms of the agreement, the sale price of about $38,994,065.80, extensions and improvements up to March 3 is approved. The water company has also been authorized to lease a tract of land near Laguna de la Merced to the city to be used as a municipal golf course and playground.

Fred Bauderman Appointed Agent for American Express Co.

Fred Bauderman, the local news agent, has been appointed agent for the American Express Company here. The office at the depot will likely be closed as all deliveries for this locality are to be made from the Palo Alto office of the company. Bauderman is to handle the business from his store in the bank building. The express company has had this change in contemplation for a long time.

City Dads Meet in Session; All Present

The town council met in regular session Tuesday evening with all members present.

A lengthy letter was read from L. H. Gowell, a resident of Stanford Park, protesting against any pavement being done in his locality as proposed by the city engineer in his recent statement. He claimed that he was not approached when the proposition, protesting against the work, was circulated. Gowell stoutly protested against any work being done on the street fronting on his property. The letter was ordered filed for reference.

Commissioner Walker said that he was approached by the owners of the property fronting on San Francisco creek in Stanford Park and they would be willing to deed the strip of land to the council for a park. They also would be willing to pave a street winding along the creek bank, providing the council would keep it in repair. Among the big owners making the suggestion were the Menlo Realty Company and Br. Brown. Walker contended that the city should accept the generous offer for the future benefit of the city. Blake thought the offer should be submitted in writing, so the council could have something tangible to work upon. Other members suggested that a map of the strip should be prepared. The mayor said a similar situation arose some years ago in Palo Alto which gave that city much trouble and litigation. After considerable discussion the commissioner was authorized to see the property owners and secure from them a proposition in writing to be ready for the next meeting of the board.

The proposition is a good one and ought to be accepted by the council for future development. Many years ago Timothy Hopkins, who laid out the city of Palo Alto, purchased a tract from the late Henry Seals. The tract consisted of six hundred acres. After considerable delay the city of Palo Alto finally accepted the strip of land along the creek for a public park. The beautiful boulevard winding along the bank of the stream was paid for, half by the city and the other portion by Hopkins. This attractive serpentine road winds through shrubbery, lawns and flowers and is one of the best assets Palo Alto has to lure the home seeker. Menlo Park may well profit by the example set by its neighbor.

The ordinance regulating the filing of maps of subdivisions had its first reading and will be adopted at the next meeting of the council. The ordinance calling for the election in April also had its first reading.

The clerk was authorized to purchase the necessary supplies for the forthcoming election. The council was informed by the city attorney to prepare to name the election officers at the next meeting.

No further business appearing the council adjourned.

Menlo Resident Passes Following Stroke of Paralysis

Dora Freiberg, a resident of Menlo Park for the past five years suddenly passed away at her home here on Tuesday evening, following a slight stroke of paralysis. Her husband, George Freiberg, died about four months ago. The deceased was about fifty-five years old and is survived by a daughter living at Modesto, to which place the remains of the deceased will be shipped today for burial. The deceased had many friends here. The Freibergs originally came from Oklahoma, where they owned a large ranch in the oil belt.

25 YEARS AGO

John H. Pitcher, Jr., of Halfmoon Bay was a local visitor during the fore part of this week.

Mrs. H. W. Brace left last Friday for Berkeley to visit with her sister, Mrs. L. D. Rathbone. Mrs. T. G. Phelps was down from the city, where she is spending the winter, Thursday, attending to some business.

The officers of Bonita Parlor N. D. O. W. were installed last week by District Deputy Grand President D. Wilson. After the closing of the Parlor, light refreshments were served.

Miss Ethel Dodge will open the Millbrae school on Monday for the spring term. Miss Dodge has been a teacher of the Millbrae school for two years and is held in high esteem by both parents and scholars. Walter Barrett returned home last Saturday, after having spent the past month with his uncle in Alameda. After a vacation of a couple of weeks he will enter a San Francisco business college to take a course.

Rev. D. M. Crabtree, Mr. James Crowe and Miss Alice Crowe went to San Francisco Tuesday as delegates from St. Peter's church to the state convention of Episcopal churches, which is being held in that city. Mr. Crowe is very much interested in the work of the Epis-

LOCAL VOLLEYBALL TEAMS DEFEAT PALY

Wednesday evening two teams of the Business Men's Volleyball League went to Palo Alto where they played teams of the League in that city.

The Redwood City Exchange played the Palo Alto Exchange in what proved to be a game very closely contested and with fast playing on both sides. From the very start it was a case of "rip and tuck". The Redwood City club was five points ahead at the end of time, the final score being 40 to 35. The Palo Alto Exchange Club was handicapped by the absence of Hod Ray, one of their strong players.

The Redwood City Post Office team played a picked team of service club men of Palo Alto and came off the victor in easy style with a score of 30 to 10.

Plans are being made by Roy A. Holmberger, the local Young Men's Christian Association secretary, who is promoting both the Palo Alto and Redwood City Leagues for more of this intercity play.

copal church, and is an energetic worker for its upbuilding. Frank Owens, at one time editor of the Times-Gazette, has been appointed postmaster at Winters. Owens, who is editor of the Winters Express, received his appointment from Congressman Knowland.

WOODSIDE

The Woodside Inn that has been closed since the last proprietor, Harry Nicodemus, moved away over to Alpine Tavern, is to be re-opened. For forty years the Inn has been an institution in Woodside. It was built in 1890 by Leon Bean for Mr. Dalve and remained in the ownership of the Dalve family until about 1914. When the old Neuman house on what is now the Wobber property burned to the ground, it became necessary to find quarters for a number of the employees of Neuman Bros., and the ashes were not yet cool at the ruins of the burned structure when Al Neuman arranged for the purchase of the Woodside Inn. Since that time it has belonged to the Neuman family. Thirty years ago it was the local headquarters for the stage line run by Walter Knight carrying mail and passengers between Redwood City and Pescadero, and many a traveler of the olden days has pleasant recollections of the stop made at the Inn for refreshments.

The building has been remodeled and refinished and has been ready for occupancy for some time but has awaited the finding of a tenant approved by the owner.

The place will be conducted by Mr. Mercandetti who for some time has been proprietor of the Tobin Cottage in Pedro Valley and by a partner of his who has for many years been connected with the Palace Hotel in San Francisco.

The old Temperance Hall which we spoke of last week as the first public dance hall in Woodside is to be wrecked. It stands on the slope of the mountains on a tract of land belonging to Blanchard and Hanrahan and this tract of 374 acres is to be subdivided and put upon the market beginning February first. The tract lies between Kings Mountain Road and the Bear Gulch property. It is beautifully wooded with a view across the Woodside Valley to the bay and the Mt. Hamilton range.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fay gave a dinner a few evenings ago at their home here. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Folger and Captain and Mrs. Powers Symington.

The Woodside Girl Scouts held their regular meeting on Wednesday afternoon. Miss Phillipson of Palo Alto was present and put the girls through the tenderfoot tests. Refreshments were provided by Mrs. Dudley and Mrs. Neuman who are in charge of the organization here. Mr. Norman Bruley has so far recovered that he will be able to return from Lane Hospital to his home here on Saturday.

Chlorinated air has been used very successfully as a preventive of colds and lung troubles by the students of the chemistry division of the University of Missouri. A small amount of chlorine is mixed with the air and this is sent into the room through special ventilators. By this means the air is purified as it enters the room, and the use of air outlets makes it possible for the air to be changed as often as it is thought necessary. A decided improvement has been noticed so far as the prevalence of colds is concerned among the students.

OLD DOCTOR'S IDEA IS BIG HELP TO ELDERLY PEOPLE

In 1885, Dr. Caldwell made a discovery for which elderly people the world over praise him today!

Years of practice convinced him that many people were endangering their health by a careless choice of laxatives. So he began a search for a harmless prescription which would be thoroughly effective, yet would neither gripe nor form any habit. At last he found it.

Over and over he wrote it, when he found people bilious, headachy, out of sorts, weak or feverish; with coated tongue, bad breath, no appetite or energy. It relieved the most obstinate cases, and yet was gentle with women, children and elderly people.

Today, this same famous, effective prescription, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, is the world's most popular laxative. It may be obtained from any druggist.

Sea Gull Stowaway
A sea gull hummed its way aboard an airship from San Francisco to Los Angeles. The bird flew into the cabin of an air liner and secreted himself in the baggage hold. When high over the city of Fresno it was found asleep and invited to get out. It only hopped higher into an inaccessible place and went back to sleep. When the plane slid into the landing field of Los Angeles the gull stretched, yawned and departed.

Denver Boy is a Winner

Every mother realizes how important it is to teach children good habits of conduct but many of them fail to realize the importance of teaching their children good bowel habits until the poisons from decaying waste held too long in the system have begun to affect the child's health.

Watch your child and at the first sign of constipation, give him a little California Fig Syrup. Children love its rich, fruity taste and it quickly drives away those distressing ailments, such as headaches, bad breath, coated tongue, biliousness, feverishness, fretfulness, etc. It gives them a hearty appetite, regulates their stomach and bowels and gives tone and strength to these organs so they continue to act normally, of their own accord. For over fifty years, leading physicians have prescribed it for half-sick, bilious, constipated children. More than 4 million bottles used a year shows how mothers depend on it.

Mrs. C. G. Wilcox, 3855 1/2 Wolff St., Denver, Colorado, says: "My son, Jackie, is a prize winner for health, now, but we had a lot of trouble with him before we found his trouble was constipation and began giving him California Fig Syrup. It fixed him up quick, gave him a good appetite, made him sleep fine and he's been gaining in weight right along since the first few days, taking it."

To avoid inferior imitations of California Fig Syrup, always look for the word "California" on the carton.

Analyzing ...YOU...

With the New Science of Syllables
By C. J. COFFMAN
Dean of All the Enumerators

Catherine
"Beset around and harassed. With doubts and fears of yore, By present ties embarrassed. You are what's gone before."

If you believe in reincarnation, Catherine, you can explain to yourself much better the aspirations and desires that surge up within you.

Before you in this world of ours, there have been five English queens, two French queens and two Russian empresses who bore the name of Catherine. Doesn't that intrigue you a little?

And then, too, Henry VIII, during his lifetime, married three separate Cathelines, one of whom he beheaded. But that's not nice for this story and we hope that you were not any of these, in former incarnations.

Of the twelve Cathelines mentioned prominently in history, I am sure that none of them bore themselves more proudly, or could carry themselves more finely, than you.

Now you can use, or misuse, this faculty of pride. Rightly used it becomes self-respect, force of character. Wrongly used it becomes egotism, conceit and arrogance.

The reason I am analyzing you in particular, Catherine, is so that I can help you to get the best out of life for yourself. There is one little art in this that may be very helpful, and here is your formula:

Be very humble within, when in the presence of anybody who can teach you some one thing. (ANYbody can teach you SOME thing.)

The other part of the formula is to be very strong and vigorous in your nature when you are teaching anyone else, because the more you appear to know what you are talking about, the better the other person can learn it. According to the ancients there are syllables in your name which indicate the ability to pray effectively. Other syllables indicate the increase of that prayer. Catherine, you can have anything you want. If you will study how to bring yourself into conscious realization of the contact of your soul with the higher sources.

Anne
"Who is it that intrigues the effort of man And makes him more noble as fast as he can? Who is it that gave him success as he ran. To fulfill his life-work, the answer is Anne."

You are the answer to the young man's prayer in more ways than one. Anne. Your name comes very naturally from an ancient word meaning to answer or bear witness.

By shortening this ancient syllable to your two first letters, AN, we have a meaning similar to wherever, or anywhere. This may imply that anywhere you go, you are the answer, as inferred in the verse above.

Your strong, kindly mouth indicates this, and shows you able to go through complicated tangles of surmises, to find the real answer.

Among the most notable of those who have found the right answer to life, might be mentioned Anne Morrow Lindbergh. A more beautiful or romantic setting could scarcely be imagined.

Or, we might mention Anne Nichols, who wrote the successful play, "Able, Liar, Rose," which ran for seven years on Broadway. Through this play, Anne "rose" from obscurity and comparative poverty to real wealth and attainment.

What is possible to Anne, is possible to Anne, even if your other name is not Nichols or Morrow.

So plunge ahead, and do not use the wrong part of your name, the NAH, which meant to humble yourself.

Anne is the best version of your name, and the strongest one, so keep it in just that spelling.

Christening Customs

Etiquette says that in other days of stricter observances a baby was baptized in the Catholic and High Episcopal church on the first or at least second Sunday after its birth. But today the christening is usually delayed at least until the young mother is up and about again. Often it is put off for months, and in some denominations children need not be christened until they are several years old. The usual age is from two to six months.

Outdoor Noah's Ark

The island of Marajo, at the 200-mile-wide mouth of the Amazon river, is as large as the kingdom of Denmark. An area of dense jungles, great prairies, rivers and a long shore line on the Atlantic, it is a haven for a vast congregation of wild life. Animals, birds, fish and gorgeous insects abound in great numbers. Including the jacare, or Brazilian crocodile.

Tray, Tray, Tray Again

In order to determine the wearing quality of a new type of tray, a firm employs a man to wash, scrub and dry 20 trays over and over again, hour after hour, day after day. He will keep this up until the trays wear out!

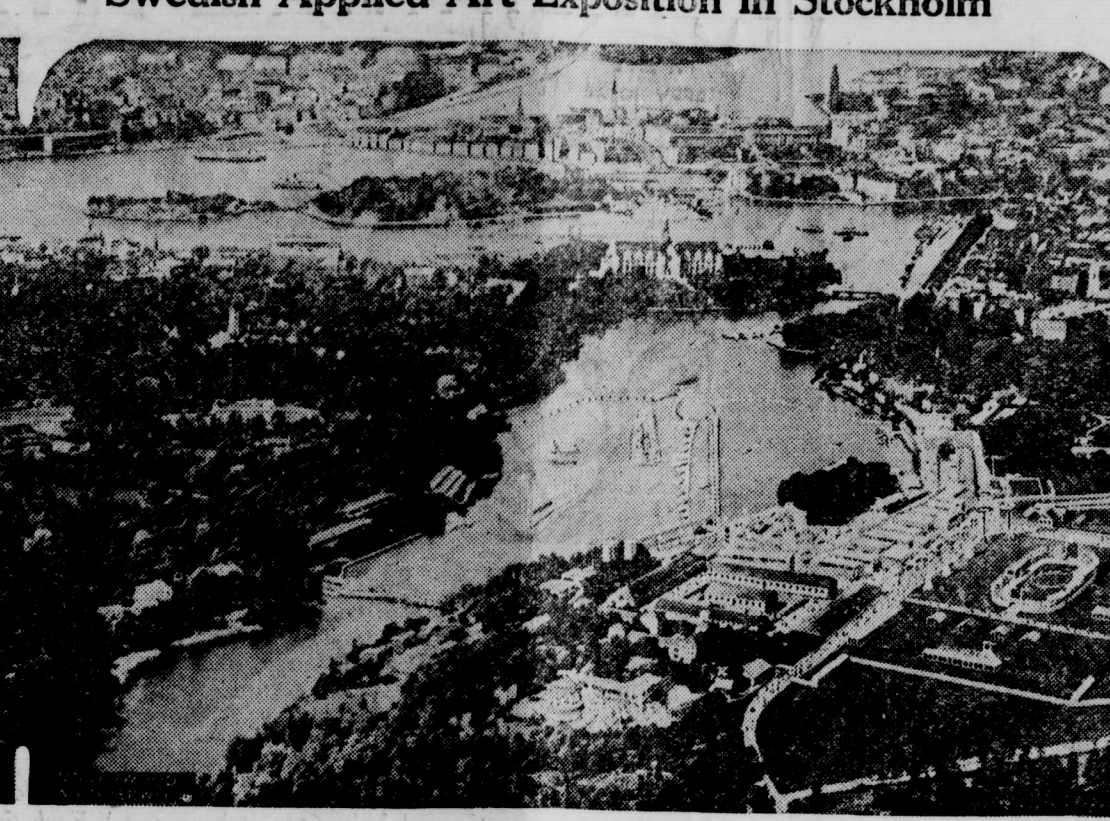

And Installments

Theoretically, says a learned society, death may be put off indefinitely. This would leave only taxes, and pens on the table d'hôte menu, as inevitable.—Detroit News.

When Babies CRY

Babies will cry, often for no apparent reason. You may not know what's wrong, but you can always give Castoria. This soon has your little one comforted; if not, you should call a doctor. Don't experiment with medicines intended for the stronger systems of adults! Most of those little upsets are soon soothed away by a little of this pleasant-tasting, gentle-acting children's remedy that children like.

It may be the stomach, or may be the little bowels. Or in the case of older children, a sluggish, constipated condition. Castoria is still the thing to give. It is almost certain to clear up any minor ailment, and could by no possibility do the youngest child the slightest harm. So it's the first thing to think of when a child has a coated tongue; won't play, can't sleep, is fretful or out of sorts. Get the genuine; it always has Chas. H. Fletcher's signature on the package.

Needless Suffering

The next time a headache makes you stay at home—

Or some other ache or pain prevents your keeping an engagement—

Remember Bayer Aspirin! For there is scarcely any pain it cannot relieve, and relieve promptly.

These tablets give real relief, or millions would not continue to take them. They are quite harmless, or the medical profession would not constantly prescribe them.

Don't be a martyr to unnecessary pain. To colds that might so easily be checked; to neuritis, neuralgia; to those pains peculiar to women; or any suffering for which Bayer Aspirin is such an effective antidote.

For your own protection, buy the genuine. Bayer is safe. It's always the same. It never depresses the heart, so use it as often as needed; but the cause of any pain can be treated only by a doctor.

"Always in Good Humor" says Bill "and my Folks, too"

YOUNG BILL FREEMAN, JR., of 707 South Street, Key West, Florida, has started in early telling the world his secret of health. "I don't know that I would have been the cause of divorce," writes Bill, through his mother, "but certainly the first three months of my life my mother was a nervous wreck, and so was I. I never saw father because he didn't like my disposition—and every day it was a fight at our house—either castor oil or an enema, and I was just about ready to quit home."

"Finally, they started in giving me a half teaspoonful of Nujol night and morning. I am five months old now, and I take Nujol every other night, which keeps me so well regulated that I am always in good humor, and so are my folks."

How simple it is, after all. No drugs, no medicines, no irritating cathartics. Just simple and natural lubrication which our bodies need as much as any machine. Nujol is not absorbed by the body. It is non-fattening; it can form no habit; it cannot hurt the smallest baby. What it does is keep our bodies internally clean of the poisons we all have and which, unless they are swept away as regularly as clock work, give us headaches, make us feel sick, low in our minds, blue, down on the world.

Nujol is as tasteless and colorless as pure water. Start this very night and see how different you will feel after a few days. It costs but a few cents and it makes you feel like a million dollars. You can buy it at any drug store in a sealed package. With millions of people all over the world keeping well with Nujol there is no reason why you, too, should not be joyous, full of pep, with the happiness that comes of good health.
